THE EDITOR'S REEL

What good can be accomplished by all we farmers sitting back and hurling obscene invectives at the present government over the turn of the wheat market? Why not take a leaf from the operations of the sugar refiners and keep a corps of well posted lobbyists at Ottawa that will be on the job all the time to take care of any emergencies that may arise. Now, when the sugar refiners found that the invasion of U. S. sugar was going to bring on prematurely the inevitable drop in price, they had their specialists on the job who immediately "fed honey" to the Commerce Board, which in turn immediately set about to protect the sugar interests. Unfortunately the Board acted indiscreetly against the interests of the consuming public and the result was acute embarrassment to Hon. Arthur Meighen and his government.

The position of the grain grower and the sugar refiner is in many respects analogous. The sugar refiner, unfortunately for we common folks, enjoys many advantages. He dictates to the public the price to be paid for the product. He sets his own margin of profit and bases his charges on a definitely known cost for raw material and labor. His "competition" is limited to a very few heavily capitalized institutions which usually are very congenial about making price arrangements. He does not market his product through a "millionaire factory" like unto the great gambling monopoly known as the grain exchange. In fact he pretty much runs the whole show in a manner to his own liking. But, like we farmers, he squeals when the market goes against him.

Owing to our short-sightedness and selfishness we farmers find ourselves without any organized protection. Our squeal avails us naught. We are helpless in the face of one of the rottenest conditions of "system" control. A United States Senator declares that the wheat growers in that country have been victimized out of more than a billion dollars by wheat gamblers in the grain exchanges. The grain men claimed that the slump was due to congestion at the terminals. The Senator gathered data to prove that this was not the case and the movement to the terminals was less by a hundred cars a day than in other ordinary grain years. Then they laid the blame to the flooding of the United States market with Canadian wheat. A revelation of the actual conditions disproved this also. In short there is no explanation forthcoming other than manipulation while the "pickings" were good.

On top of all this evidence India is facing disaster with her sub-normal wheat harvest and Europe requires all the wheat surplus now visible to carry her through. Europe is holding back in the hope of buying on a low market. But Europe expects America to pay high for all manufactured articles by which she will pay for her wheat. So why be pernickety about the price charged for wheat?

The grain dealers have started the tolling of their own funeral bell and the people will not be satisfied until the change they will demand is effected.

If Alberta goes bone dry on the 25th, it will be largely due to the vote of people who have been known to drink wet. It is a remarkable fact that many of the old-time drinkers are the ones most anxious to inhibit the traffic. The natural dries are too prone to look upon the vote as a foregone conclusion, and will overlook their duty at the polls.

If you can convince yourself that the liquor traffic has any legitimate place in our present day existence, vote wet. As far as we are concerned the idea of eradicating the technical blunder in the constitution relating to interprovincial trade. This ancient writ has been the means of defeating the will of the people of Canada ever since the fight against booze began. It would be much better to establish some system of vending within the province than to go on in this ridiculous fashion.

For the sake of the greatest good to the greatest number, DRY!

U.F.A. READY FOR BIG DRIVE

Greenfield Confident that Alberta Organization will make Record Showing.

Herbert Greenfield, Westlock, Vice-President of U.F.A. and chairman of the U.F.A. organization committee, advises that everything is in readiness for the big drive during the first week in November.

Most of the preliminary work has been done and it is expected that on November 1st and November 2nd upwards of 3000 enthusiastic U.F.A. supporters will be in the field visiting their neighbors and soliciting for memberships in the association.

The organization work in both Manitoba and Saskatchewan has been progressing favorably and reports from "district captains" indicate that the morning of November 1st will see upwards of ten thousand active workers beginning their canvass in all the rural districts in the three provinces.

In this drive an endeavor will be made to have a representative of the farmers association visit every resident farmer between the City of Winnipeg and the Rocky Mountains. The head of every household will be asked to contribute the sum of $6.00—no more no less. This amount will pay for a year's membership in the association, a year's subscription to the official organ and leave $2.00 to be used by the central and district boards for organization purposes.

Associated with Mr. Greenfield on the Alberta Organization Committee are L. M. Goetz of Red Deer and Snow Sears of Nanton. All are members of Board of Directors of the U.F.A. The committee has fixed an objective of 50,000 U.F.A. members for the year 1920 and all are confident that this figure will be reached.

Ayrshires Deliver the Goods

Contending against almost insurmountable difficulties during the past three years, Frank Newton has persisted and with considerable success has built up a herd of pure bred Ayrshire cattle. Realizing that a good beginning was half the battle, Mr. Newton selected the nucleus of his herd from the Claresholm School of Agriculture and from the famous DeWinton Ayrshire farm owned by Rowland Ness. So all the animals he will offer at his dispersion sale on the 28th. have the best breeding in Canada behind them. Mr. Newton has sold but few animals since he started his herd but those have turned out to be most satisfactory producers of milk and butter fat. It has come to a point in this country where people must keep one or two real dairy cows. The dual purpose cow has not proven a success financially. The Ayrshire has demonstrated qualities of hardiness that recommends it to withstand this severe climatic changes in this western country. The Ayrshire has been proven to be the most economical feeder for the amount of butter fat production and anyone desiring to get into some steady pin money should attend this sale.

At Rest

A large crowd of friends gathered at the Lomond Church on Tuesday morning to pay their last tribute of respect over the remains of Mrs. Vern Davies. Rev. F. Forster spoke a few words of comfort and hope. As the deceased had been a Past Master of Primrose Rebekah Lodge No. 61, the members of the Order attended in a body and took charge of the funeral services at the graveside.

Mr. Davies' sister, Mrs. W. R. Patterson, of Rochester, Minn., arrived for the funeral. Mrs. Patterson took home with her the deceased's infant daughter. Mr. Davies accompanied her to Rochester and will remain there for a few weeks.

T. S. Fetterly, undertaker, brought the remains out from Lethbridge and conducted the funeral arrangements. Interment was made in the Travers cemetery.

Numerous floral tributes gave evidence of the devotion of relatives and friends.

The Imperial Oil Co. has struck a gusher at Ft. Norman in Northern Alberta. The depth of the well is only 800 feet. Out of a six inch hole the crude oil was gushing to a height fifteen feet above the derrick. According to the report of the company's geologist this well will produce about 275 barrels of crude oil per hour. We are of the opinion that similar strikes will be made in different parts of the province within the next year, and that the oil boom of 1914 is only a pocket edition compared with what will be in the near future. Along with this oil strike comes the news of discovery of huge deposits of rich iron ore nearby. This certainly sounds interesting from the standpoint of the future industrial development of the province.

The anticipated long threshing runs in the good crops up north came to a short conclusion through the invasion of numerous machines from the south. The outfits and men are now pretty well all home again. The exceptionally dry fall helped to hasten the completion of harvest operations. Some idea can be gained of the present condition when it is known that more than thirty-four million bushels of Alberta's this year production has already passed terminal inspection points. This, on top of what is on hand in country elevators, must constitute a greater percentage of the exportable supply available.

Good News for for the Men . . .

The supply in most lines of merchandise has now caught up with the demand, and the immediate result is a slight drop in prices on some lines. Almost every line has reached its top price. But do not judge from this that prices are going to tumble down. The price decline will be slight and very gradual. Social conditions have changed and the status of labor has changed. No very great reductions in the cost of production can be made, as labor is the dominating factor in the cost of production today. There have been some slight reductions in prices and we are prepared to pass on to our customers every benefit. We were the last to raise prices. We will be first to reduce them.
